

Since 2013 the Stockholm-based band "Roof Down" has come to develop their music with rocket speed! The debut album "Commercial, 2013" released both digitally and on vinyl, got attention for its mix of melancholic alternative rock with catchy choruses. The band got international attention by, among others, the US-based Al Walser's Weekly top20 and came by chance even in the hands of the hip Dutch radio station Laser Radio, who chose to dedicate the band extra attention.

In November of 2015 RD released the sequel "Close Shave", which was predicted to give the recognition that the band deserve. One of the primary singles were the song "She's Coming Home", written with the inspiration of Annika Östberg's life story, the Swede who was imprisoned for almost 30 years in the US before she was granted transfer to Swedish correctional.

RD was shortly thereafter invited by Annika to a unique meeting in her home as a gesture of appreciation, and together they could listen to the song and watch the music video. With tearful eyes Annika expressed her gratitude and that she felt honored!

The singles from the second album, "Rewind" and "She's Coming Home", was played on various radio stations – Sweden's most commercial radio station Bandit Rock, the Dutch Radio IndieXL and the US-based 365 Radio Network. RD was even invited to do a unplugged gig live on air at a radio station in Stockholm.

RD's vocalist Johan Sjöberg is also present as an actor in the Swedish multiple award winning crime thriller "Vilsen/Ave Mater, 2016". Johan wrote the film's title song rendered with Nina Söderqvist on vocals and produced together with Peter and Nanne Grönwall. RD's single, the suggestive "Up To You" was presented in the movie's music selection.

At present, RD recently released their new EP, "Grunge Pro Bono, 2017". Promotion gigs are being booked as we speak and the goal for 2018 (besides Spot Festival) is to play at various summer festivals and make a Germany Tour to please the German fans.

RD:

Johan Sjöberg – vocals.

Mats Stille – guitar.

Thobbe Hermansen – bass.

Staffan Westelius – drums.

Listening links and music videos are available at:
www.roofdown.se